Chapter 8

The Book of Moroni

Chapter 8

The baptism of little children is an evil abomination—Little children are alive in Christ because of the Atonement—Faith, repentance, meekness and lowliness of heart, receiving the Holy Ghost, and enduring to the end lead to salvation. About A.D. 401–421.

1 An epistle of my father Mormon, written to me, Moroni; and it was written unto me soon after my calling to the ministry. And on this wise did he write unto me, saying:

2 My beloved son, Moroni, I rejoice exceedingly that your Lord Jesus Christ hath been mindful of you, and hath called you to his ministry, and to his holy work.

3 I am mindful of you always in my prayers, continually praying unto God the Father in the name of his Holy Child, Jesus, that he, through his infinite goodness and grace, will keep you through the endurance of faith on his name to the end.
The Notes and Journal Toolbar

Look for this Notes and Journal toolbar to appear when you’re reading content on LDS.org:

Currently this toolbar appears only when you’re reading four types of content:

- Scriptures
- Magazine articles
- Lessons
- Conference addresses

Note: Notes and Journal toolbar does not appear for any other type of content, such as the Handbook, Study by Topic, Study Helps, Bible Dictionary, or other content. The scope of what you can add to Notes and Journal will be expanded in a later release.
Notes and Journal allows you to gather resources you're reading on LDS.org into one place.

Note: The previous name for Notes and Journal was My Study Notebook. This previous term has not been updated in the videos. However, the functionality has not changed.

Notes and Journal is helpful if you're doing research for a talk or lesson and are browsing resources across LDS.org, or if you're just studying the gospel and want a better way to organize your notes and annotated verses online.
Moroni 10:4-5

4 And when ye shall receive these things, I would exhort you that ye would ask God, the Eternal Father, in the name of Christ, if these things are not true; and if ye shall ask with a sincere heart, with real intent, having faith in Christ, he will manifest the truth of it unto you, by the power of the Holy Ghost.

5 And by the power of the Holy Ghost ye may know the truth of all things.*

Ether 12:6

"And now, I, Moroni, would speak somewhat concerning these things. I would show unto the world that faith is things which are hoped for and not seen, wherefore, dispute not because ye see not; for ye receive no witness until after the trial of your faith."
Even as the Church grew worldwide, President Smith emphasized the importance of individual homes and families. He reminded Latter-day Saints that "the Church organization really exists to assist the family and its members in reaching exaltation." He taught: "The family is the most important organization in time or in eternity. ... It is the will of the Lord to strengthen and preserve the family unit."
As you’re reading content on LDS.org, such as scriptures or lessons, you can highlight the content, add a few notes, and save this information to your Notes and Journal. Notes and Journal is your own personal, private space on LDS.org to collect your gospel content and notes.

Faith, repentance, meekness and grace, and enduring to the end lead one to be exceedingly pure and holy. He who has faith, repentance, meekness and grace, and endures to the end, shall be exceedingly pure and holy."

He who has faith, repentance, meekness and grace, and endures to the end, shall be exceedingly pure and holy.

The Lord, by offering his blood, taketh away the sins of the world; and he who believeth in him and is obedient to his commandments, shall be saved. He shall be saved from the sins of the world and shall inherit eternal life.
